CODE OF CONDUCT

Upon signing the Tenancy Agreement, particular attention should be given to 5(h) which states that members have a responsibility to avoid behaviour which is likely to cause a nuisance to other members and other persons lawfully on the property and in particular, not to cause any interference, nuisance or annoyance whether through noise, anti-social behaviour or threats or violence such members or persons on their property. Not to behave in a threatening or violent manner or to cause wilful damage to any person occupying or visiting any part of the property or against any property belonging to any such person or the co-operative.

Part 5(g) states that the member is responsible at all times for the behaviour of guests while the guests are on the property and for making good any damage caused by the guests either to the Cop-operative property or another member.

I hereby confirm that I have read the above and agree to abide by this code of conduct. I acknowledge that my tenancy would be in jeopardy and I may be asked to leave the accommodation if I fail to comply.
